Re: Character Reference for Adam Halemano

To Whom It May Concern:

I am honored and privileged to present this character reference for Adam Halemano. I first met Adam eight years ago when I joined PM Realty Group's accounting team. For the past eight years, I have had the opportunity to work with Adam and get to know him on a professional and personal level. Adam has been the IT Specialist for the western region and responsible for managing and taking care of various information technology needs for the company and its employees.

Adam is very professional and treats everybody with equal respect and courtesy. Whether he is working with the regional vice president or the administrative assistant, Adam exhibits a positive attitude when working with others and a commitment to promptly addressing and resolving any concerns people have or problems they experience.

Adam is a highly self-motivated and driven individual who exudes an unabated passion for technology. Within the past five years, Adam has actively pursued and successfully completed attaining his Bachelors and Masters degrees in IT and education. Adam stays abreast of advances and new developments in IT and enthusiastically imparts his knowledge of the technology's advantages, disadvantages, and/or possibilities that will aid its users to better achieve their goals.

Lastly Adam is generous with his time by helping and assisting people with their own personal technology needs on his personal time. Just as with others, he has taken time to rebuild my computer, counsel me on the software installed, and continues to be available to address any questions or concerns that may arise. His kindness, generosity, and care are very much appreciated and will never be forgotten.

Summarily Adam is a remarkable individual and will be a great asset to any organization. Should you need additional information, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Nicole Britt
